About Robson Square

Located in the heart of downtown Vancouver, British Columbia, Robson Square is a provincial landmark and the Province's largest building with 1.2 million square feet extending over three city blocks. The internationally recognized facility was designed by renowned architect Arthur Erickson and built between 1979 and 1983.

Housed within this property are the Provincial law courts to the South, the Vancouver Art Gallery to the North, and in the centre, the University of British Columbia's (UBC's) downtown campus and Vancouver's only outdoor ice rink. Robson Square is frequented by tourists, students, shoppers, office workers, and residents.
